LAND ROVER DENVER CLUB OPENS AT PEPSI CENTER

DENVER, CO – The former Denver Post Newsroom on the club level at Pepsi Center has recently been remodeled and reopened as the Land Rover Denver Club. Through a partnership between Kroenke Sports & Entertainment, Levy Restaurants, Land Rover Denver East and Land Rover Highlands Ranch, the new space now features a brand new look and menu. The Land Rover Denver Club is currently open to all premium ticket holders during events that take place inside Pepsi Center.

The redesigned area now offers an authentic Colorado atmosphere fusing both traditional and modern elements into a truly unique bar destination. The selected finishes showcase the historical buildings of the city, as well as the relaxed and rustic feel of a mountain lodge. The comfortable space has seating for 125 and can accommodate over 300 in a lounge-like environment. Guests can enjoy a Colorado craft beer or specialty drink coupled with a chef-inspired dish without missing any of the action in the arena, while watching on one of the 20 HD TVs positioned throughout the space.

"We are very excited and honored that our stores were chosen as title sponsor of the Land Rover Club. We believe that the Land Rover Denver Club will be the premier luxury lounge of choice inside of Pepsi Center," said Anthony Brownlee, president and managing partner of Land Rover Highlands Ranch and Land Rover Denver East.

Additionally, Pepsi Center's Executive Chef Rob Mrvos and his culinary team have brought mile high tastes to the Land Rover Denver Club. Great Colorado flavors are highlighted throughout the new menu. Customers can now enjoy Colorado Bison Sausage Flatbread, Mini Mac and Cheese Dogs, Truffle Fries, Roasted Pork Belly Almonds, and much more. Local brews from many Colorado breweries such as Avery Brewing (Boulder, CO), Breckenridge Brewery (Breckenridge, CO), Left Hand Brewery (Longmont, CO), New Belgium Brewing (Fort Collins, CO) and Tommyknocker Brewery (Idaho Springs, CO) are available. Fine local spirits such as Stranahan's Colorado Whiskey, 303 Vodka and Leopold Bros Gin take center stage in multiple signature cocktails as well.
